

AWWAIndia at Corcon16

CORCON is a unique event where the world corrosion fraternity comes together to present breakthrough case-studies, showcase latest technologies and products and conduct sessions to solve challenging issues in various industries. AWWAIndia too participated at Corcon16 and showcased advantages of an AWWAIndia membership.

Delegates and exhibitors alike, were aware of AWWA. However, they were surprised to know about it's recent foray into India. They were interested in knowing about benefits of an AWWAIndia membership and took advantage of the 90-day trial membership on offer. Check out exclusive pics from the event here.
